THE APOCRYPHAL WONDER YEARS CONTINUE! pH EXTENDS PROVOCATIVE BIBLICAL IMPROV SHOW

CHICAGO, May 1 – pH Productions, a Chicago-based improv and comedy theater company, has announced 2 more performances of The Apocryphal Wonder Years, a provocative and hilarious improvised portrayal of the lost books of The Bible!

The Apocryphal Wonder Years has been called a Best Bet by Chicago Magazine, UR Chicago and Metromix. Now, due to popular demand, this comedic look at the Good Book's forbidden stories will also be performed on May 17 and May 24.

The Apocryphal Wonder Years – The lost books of The Bible come to life in these hilarious improvised tales based on your suggestions! There are over 20 books mentioned in the Bible, but not found there. Over the centuries, the Church removed and banned these and other books that didn't fit the teachings of time. Now you inspire the actors to explore the characters and lessons that didn't make the cut. A different host each week will guide you through this dangerous improv heresy. A pH Spotlight Series production.

Thursdays @ 11PM, through May 24. Tickets are $8, $5 for students with ID. BYOB. Stage Left Theatre, 3408 N. Sheffield Avenue in Lakeview/Wrigleyville. Tickets and additional info are available at spotlight.whatisph.com or by calling the pH Box Office at 773.732.5450.

The Apocryphal Wonder Years is created and directed by Aaron Ellsworth and features: Kathryn Durkin, Chris Edwards, Alaina Hoffman, Wes Perry, Micah Philbrook, Alex Sanborn and Guy Wicke.

pH Productions is now in its 5th season of highly-interactive late night improv comedy. pH's Mainstage shows can be seen every Friday & Saturday at Stage Left Theatre. For more information, visit www.whatisph.com.
